

BIG FARE.

Sch. Talisman Has Fine Dory Several Fresh Fares at Newport Hand Line Trip.

Capt. McGinnis Reports Fleet Not Doing Very Well.

Sch. Talisman, Capt. John McGinnis, arrived [from a handline dory codfishing trip from Sable Island Bank Tuesday afternoon, with a splendid fare, 275,000 pounds of salt cod, being the first of the dory handline fleet to arrive this season.

The fare is an exceptionally large one for this time of the year and shows that Capt. McGinnis is keeping up his big record of last season. It is not often that so large a fare is landed so early in the season, and this shows that Capt. McGinnis and his crew have worked hard and hustled for their big trip.

The captain reports that the dory handline fleet as a whole has not done well, the vessels when he left for home having from 70,000 to 140,000 pounds of cod.

He confirmed the story which appeared in Saturday's TIMES in regard to catching a part of his trip with no bait, using Newfoundland "slickers" on the big schools of cod off the northeast bar of Sable Island.

The fare will be taken in by Canningham & Thompson, owners of the vessel.

BIG STOCK.

Realized by Sch. Judique on Fresh and Salt Fish Trip.

Sch. Judique, Capt. William Goodwin, weighed off 94,000 pounds of salt cod and 40,000 pounds of fresh cod as the result of her recent fresh and salt trip to Sable Island bank. This is the biggest trip of the kind of the season. A fine stock of $3600 was made from which the share of $83 to a man was realized.

Capt. Goodwin is a hard-working skipper whose efforts have met with deserved success.

MORE GOOD FARES

Are Reported at Newport at Noon To-day.

Other Vessels On the Way With Trips.

A special to the TIMES this afternoon from its Newport, R. I., correspondent gives the following additional arrivals since morning:

Steamer Curtie, 250 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Ramona, 250 bbls. fresh mackerel.

Sch. Nellie Bly, 70 bbls. fresh mackerel.

Sch. Mary E. Harty, 250 bbls. fresh mackerel.

Sch. Lottie G. Merchant, 150 bbls. fresh mackerel.

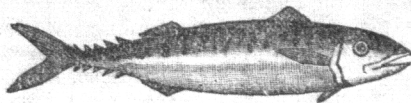

No wind, and other vessels on the way with catches.

Sch. Ramona, Capt. Anderson, which arrived at Newport, R. I., this afternoon, has a fine fare, 250 barrels of fresh mackerel. This is Capt. Anderson's first trip as skipper and the vessel is only a week out from here.

During the past week a fairly heavy school of mackerel have appeared at the Magdalen Islands, and the netters are doing well. The fish are fairly small in size (about 200 to a barrel) and the catch to date has been about one bbl. per net, with good prospects for more.

FRESH MACKEREL.

Little Sch. Angielena Has 300 Barrels.

The mackerel fleet have apparently found the fish again, as several fine fresh fares are at Newport, R. I., to-day.

One of the porgy steamers had 230 barrels of fresh mackerel at Newport Tuesday.

A special to the TIMES this morning gives the following arrivals at Newport this forenoon:

Sch. Victor, Capt. John W. McFarland, 180 barrels fresh mackerel, 50 barrels salt do.

Sch. Angielena, Capt. Samuel Joseph, 300 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Nettie Franklin, Capt. Cahoon, 150 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Little Fanny, 10 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Quickstep, 11 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sloop Thistle, 11 barrels fresh mackerel.

Sch. Jennie Gilbert, 7 barrels fresh mackerel.

The Victor was only 70 hours out from this port when she reached Newport with her trip. Her engine is working finely.

The Angielena was a sight. She towed up the harbor loaded to the scuppers. The schooner has been out from here a week and in that time has landed 400 barrels of fresh mackerel. Capt. Samuel Joseph evidently has his eye right on the fish for he is making a big record this season.

Fresh mackerel are bringing 12 cents for large and 8 cents for mediums at Boston to-day.

There are 200 barrels of fresh mackerel at Boston from Newport this morning.

Sch. Lizzie M. Center, Capt. Joseph Smith, has stocked $6000 net thus far, the crew sharing $157.

Capt. Jacobs at Boston With 600 Barrels Mackerel.

Sch. Norumbega Also Takes 500 Barrels.

Sch. Helen Miller Gould, Capt. Solomon Jacobs, arrived at Boston at 8 o'clock this morning with the largest mackerel fare of the season, 200 barrels of salt mackerel and 400 barrels of fresh mackerel.

The fish were taken Tuesday 60 miles southeast of No Man's Land. Many of the fleet were there and some got fish. Most of the fleet went to Newport with their fares, while the Gould came to Boston.

Capt. Jacobs is of course expected to bring a big fare when he comes. This one will net a big stock and strengthen his claim on the high line position which he already holds.

The fresh mackerel brought eight cents each for large and five cents for mediums.

A telephone message from Newport, R. I., on Wednesday evening stated that about 60 sail were on the fish 60 miles south east of No Man's Land and that 15 or 20 made hauls.

A special to the TIMES from Boston states that the Helen Miller Gould has 35,000 fresh mackerel in count and 175 barrels of salt mackerel.

Sch. Norumbega, Capt. John McKinnon, has done some fine fishing.

been out but a short time and is bound home with 400 barrels of salt mackerel and 100 barrels of fresh mackerel. At 11 o'clock this forenoon, the Norumbega was becalmed off Highland light. Capt. McKinnon was rowed ashore and telephoned to this city, and tug Eveleth was sent to tow her to this port.

Capt. McKinnon has struck his gait and is doing well.

Sch. Pleiades, Capt. Smith, is at Provincetown with 170 barrels salt mackerel.

Sch. Ella M. Doughty, landed 190 barrels of salt mackerel at Portland on Tuesday. The fish were taken in southern waters.

Fresh mackerel are bringing 8 cents apiece at the Fort this morning. The draggers brought in a few fish.
